

CRABBE, BROWN & JAMES_{LLP}

VALEDA SLONE

VSlone@cbjLawyers.com

Ms. Slone was born in Circleville, Ohio in 1968. She obtained her paralegal certification from Ohio University through their association with The Center for Legal Studies in 2003.

She joined Crabbe, Brown & James in October, 1995 as a legal secretary. In November, 1997 she began serving as office manager of the Firm's Lancaster office, together with her responsibilities as a paralegal. Ms. Slone's focus is in the area of complex litigation and matters involving high document production.

In the community, she has served as a member of the planning committee for the newly developed Fairfield County Child and Family Advocacy Center and has been an active volunteer in several capacities with local school systems and charitable organizations.